

Supported by the Bureau of Justice Assistance

Offender Reentry Programs in Indian Country and Native Communities

Webinar Series

This webinar series originates from the Strategies for Creating Offender Reentry Programs in Indian Country publication which provides guidance on promising practices and strategies related to offender reentry in Indian Country.

The webinar series is sponsored by:
U.S. Department of Justice;
Indian Health Services, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; and U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services' Indian Country Steering Committee.

Webinar Schedule:

Apr 26	Principles of Tribal Reentry
May 24	Offender Reentry Provisions in Tribal Law and Order Act & Interagency Agreements
Jun 21	Principles of Evidence Based Practices & Building an Evaluable Program
Jul 26	Information Sharing & Reentry
Aug 23	Jail Reentry
Sept 20	Sex Offender Management: Registration and Community Notification
Oct 25	Health & Social Services Role in a Multidisciplinary Approach to Reentry
Nov 15	The Role of Law Enforcement in Reentry

Note: All webinar trainings are scheduled from 3:00 - 4:00 p.m. EDT. Registration will open one month prior to training date. Further details and contact information for each session is on the following page.

For general inquiries about this series, email CCDOReentry@usdoj.gov.

To register for the May 24 session, visit: <https://cc.readytalk.com/cc/schedule/display.do?udc=5m2wp6i4n47l>.

To learn more about reentry-related events and funding opportunities, please sign up for the National Reentry Resource Center's newsletter at <http://nationalreentryresourcecenter.org/account/subscriptions>.

[from: *<http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/ccdo/programs/flyer-moreInformation.pdf>]

More Information

Offender Reentry in Indian Country & Native Communities Webinar Series

Registration

Registration will open one month prior to scheduled webinars. To register, click the “registration” hyper link on the general flyer or through the session description page. The hyperlink will take directly to the registration page.

A reminder, all webinars are scheduled for 3:00 p.m. – 4:00 pm EDT.

If you have general questions about the webinar series, please email CCDORentry@usdoj.gov. If you have specific questions about individual webinars, please contact the following:

- Webinar # 1: Principles of Tribal Reentry
Ada Melton, 505.842.1122, ada@aidainc.net
- Webinar # 2: Reentry Provisions in the Tribal Law and Order Act of 2010 & Interagency Agreements
Norena Henry, 202.616-3205, Norena.Henry@usdoj.gov
- Webinar # 3: Principles of Evidence Based Practices & Building an Evaluable Program
Norena Henry, 202.616-3205, Norena.Henry@usdoj.gov
- Webinar # 4: Information Sharing & Reentry
Kim Cobb, 859.244.8015, kcobb@csg.org
- Webinar # 5: Jail Reentry
Kermit Humphries, 202.514.0118, khumphries@bop.gov
- Webinar # 6: Sex Offender Management: Registry and Community Notification
Juli Ana Grant, 202.514.6678, JuliAna.Grant@usdoj.gov
- Webinar # 7: Health and Social Services Role in Multidisciplinary Approach to Reentry
Mose Herne, 301.443.0104, Mose.Herne@ihs.gov
- Webinar # 8: The Role of Law Enforcement in Reentry
Elaine Deck, 703.836.6767, decke@theiacp.org

Archived Sessions

Some of these sessions will be recorded and archived. One week after a scheduled session, archived webinar sessions will be available. On the general flyer announcing the webinar schedule, past recorded webinar sessions will be archived and available to the public for preview.

Sponsors

Sponsors of this webinar series include the U.S. Department of Justice (Office of Justice Programs, Community Capacity Development Office, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office on Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking, National Institute of Corrections, U.S. Attorney’s Office – District of Hawaii), the Indian Health Services of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Service, American Indian Development Associates (AIDA), The National Reentry Resource Center, The International Association of Chiefs of Police, and The America Probation and Parole Association. Other participants include the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services’ Indian Country Steering Committee, Office of Justice Services of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Office of Native Hawaiian Affairs at the U.S. Department of Interior and Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. The Community Capacity Development Office led coordination of the webinar series with assistance from AIDA.